GOOD EYESIGHT

Is nature's greatest gift to mankind. Even though a hand or foot be missing, a man may still succeed in his calling, but brave indeed is he who persists after losing the sense of sight.

This precious gift of good vision should not be allowed to become impaired, either through misuse or neglect. If you have the slightest cause to suspect that your eyesight may be defective you should have an authoritive examination of your eyes made at once.

We Appreciate the Kind Words Said of Us

A writer this week asks "why we do not acknowledge the compliment he paid our paper in a recent letter?", and we wish to say it is not from lack of appreciation, but because we think our readers do like our paper or they would not pay for it, and it seems a bit of imposition to "blow our own horn" in the space they pay for to hold news. This also applies to the occasional "knocks"—Lord bless us, we know we deserve the "knocks" too. It has been many years since we thought we were issuing a perfect paper, but we do try to make it the best we know how, and above all we try to be fair, impartial and honest. We publish no sensational news, scandals or "smut." There are too many in that field without us, and as a rule when we can say nothing good of a man, we simply leave him alone until his conduct becomes a public nuisance, and then we do our best to remove his cuticle with expedition and case, but as a rule we devote our space to clean, decent, interesting local news, and the many kind friends who are pleased to write us some pretty compliments may know we like them, even if we do not acknowledge them in our columns. Just take it for granted, we are Irish, and very human, and the next thing an Irishman loves, rather than having nice things said of himself, is saying them of others.

For Non-Partisan Local Elections

Next week the state legislature will take up this important measure, and we urge upon our readers the importance of communicating with our splendid representatives and our senator, Frank Sadler, urging them to support the measure in every way in their power, as it is the almost unanimous opinion of Englewood people that it would be greatly for our good and civic benefit. No matter how strong may be our political feelings in national affairs, nearly all are agreed that our city and county affairs should be administered by non-partisan officials, rather than be the hand ball of political parties and gangsters. We are paying enough taxes to give us the finest administration in the world, and we have about the worst, because fully one-half if not more of the tax levy is the dirty work of their parties. Efficiency, honesty and industry are unknown requirements, the only query being, "can he carry his precinct?", and the result is a nest of idling, booze fighting, time serving employes who hold on from one administration to another, simply by the fact that they are "good party men." There are enough good people in both parties to put good men in office, and the good people can do it if they will unwrap themselves from the party cover long enough to do so. Do your duty, do it now, write to your representative, help this good work along.

Ald. Lyle claims that the increase in the price of milk will cost the people of Chicago $2,400,000 a year, which all could have been avoided if his proposed bureau of economy in handling food products had been working. Mr. Lyle resents the idea of Dr. Robertson to have this bureau added to the health department, and, as always, he is right.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF ENGLEWOOD
64th St. and Yale Ave.

At Englewood Presbyterian Church: At the morning service at 10:30 Dr. Robinson will speak on "Retarded Motion." In primitive days a declaration of war was often made by shooting an arrow formally and solemnly toward the enemy's capital or his territory. The energy with which the arrow was discharged might well signify the intensity of determination to fight. The King of Israel, Joash, shot the arrow strongly and well. But Elisha, the Phophet, told him to do something more. He was to take his bunch of arrows and shoot them into the near ground as if to signify the thoroughness with which he would carry on the campaign. The brave and determined, but not utterly brave and determined king, shot three arrows and then stopped. It was as if he had said, "I expect two or three victories and that will satisfy me." But the aged prophet of God was angry and said, "You should have shot the whole bunch, the whole five or six of them, if there were that many." It is a strange and quaint yet striking picture of how men fail to keep up full force in their undertakings. They slow up. They stop.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre at 62nd and Halsted Sts. is offering some unusual attractions as will be seen by their advertisement in another column. A feature of the Halsted is their $5,000 Bartola orchestra organ which Mr. Frank has recently installed, being the finest procurable and the leading musical attraction of the house and one that is well worth a visit to hear.

"The Spreading Evil," which has been announced as the attraction at the Halsted Theatre for Monday and Tuesday, June 2nd and 3rd, is very much a photodrama of the moment. It portrays most vividly existing social conditions.

"The Spreading Evil's" story touches a dozen different angles which are popular with the masses, and there is sympathy for practically every character introduced.

"The Spreading Evil" of the title is the dread blood disease which medical scientists have been trying for years to curb. Involved in the plot is the manner in which the best-known specific for the disease was discovered and is being distributed to suffering mankind. Profiteering is touched upon. There is condemnation for existing systems of organized charity which pay too little attention to the real needs of the people they are supposed to help. There is a fling at the modern order of things which makes it almost necessary at times for people to do wrong when they would much rather do right. In short, "The Spreading Evil" gets the approval of its audiences by presenting in picture form arguments which the "man in the street" has often marshalled in his mind and has been unable to express.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

There is a reason for the splendid audiences that nightly fill the Marlowe Hippodrome. Nowhere else will one find the excellence of program, the variety of entertainment and the general wholesome enjoyment that pictures. Every Tuesday the big joy night comes, the song and dance contests with a special run of good pictures. Wednesdays Houdini in "The Master Mystery" and others, backed Manager "Doc" White offers his audiences. Besides the house is always clean, sanitary and comfortable and the best of care tendered the audience and the "baby coop" where the tottlers are cared for is a special feature appreciated by tired mothers. Every Monday they have the ladies' hat contests as well as a fine run of feature by four splendid vaudeville acts.

Saturday and Sunday the all-star vaudeville attractions is also helped out by fine pictures, making a double bill that amuses and entertains for several hours that no house in the city can claim to equal. The Marlowe always leads, and the attractions are fresh, clean and merry, so that those who go once become regulars and know "Doc" White's smiling phiz as well as they do the milkman's, and enjoy it with greater gusto. See "Doc" and see his shows and you will be happy.

"Maciste," Gabriele d'Annunzio's great film star, who became famous overnight as the Giant in "Cabiria," has recently completed his latest picture, entitled "The Liberator," which will be shown at the Marlowe Theatre, beginning Thursday, May 29th. Anyone who sees this great serial will understand how it is humanly possible for this giant to bend iron bars with ease, tear massive furniture to bits with his bare hands, destroy furniture and property unmercifully by merely twisting it into splinters. In one episode he upholds a tottering balcony, moves fallen trees in another, and by way of amusement picks up ordinary men and tosses them about as a baby would a tiny rubber doll. While serving with the Italian Army in the great war he amused his fellow comrades by breaking Austrian rifles over his knee. Is it any wonder that "Maciste" is a great favorite with all classes?

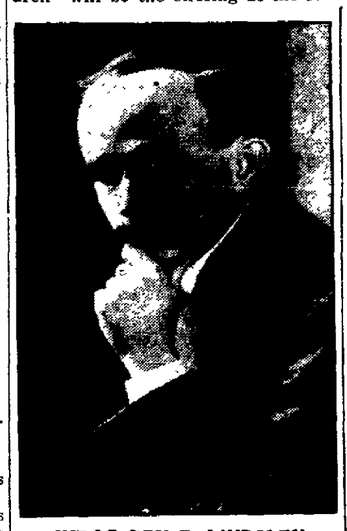
NATIONAL THEATRE

"Should There Be Children," at the National Theatre Next Week

"Should There Be Children," the latest Howard McKent Barnes play, is a fascinating, realistic story of every day life. a play that brings you in closer touch with all mankind and womankind. If you see this play without tears, your heart is hard and if you do not laugh at times, humor plays a small part in the drama of your life. It is a story with an absorbing plot, the love story is pathetic. Each act is interwoven with sweet sentiment. "Should There Be Children" will be the offering at the National week starting Sunday matinee, June 1st. Bargain matinees will be given daily. 500 seats at 25c.



JUDGE BEN B. LINDSLEY

When Howard McKent Barnes wrote the play "Should There Be Children" he must have had Judge Lindsley in mind in writing the character role, which he calls "Judge Bart," a children's welfare worker, who has three children of his own, believes in the abolishment of baby farming and everything that means hardship for children. "Should There Be Children" is a powerful drama of life and the theme, characters, more human, more interesting and more convincing than is usual in drama offerings today, and will be seen at the National Theatre for one week with daily matinees starting Sunday, June 1st.

Saturday, May 31, continuous, 2 to 11, double feature. America's great character actor Frank Keenan, in a powerful drama "The Master Man." Frank Keenan's portrayal of Emanual Blake is the greatest piece of screen work ever done. Also Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in their new and last screen comedy, "Harold, the Last of the Saxons."

Sunday, June 1st, continuous 2 to 11. The athletic star William Russell in a joyful five act comedy drama, "Some Liar." A joyful tale of a man's mendacity and a woman's inconsistency. Also Pathe Weekly News, Sunshine Comedy and matinee only, "The Red Glove."

Monday, June 2nd. Enid Bennett in "The Law of Men." She was only a struggling little artist in Greenwich Village, trying hard to sell her first piece of work. So when Keene, frivolous architect and man-about-town, made her a glittering offer—She fell into his trap but— In escaping she moulded the lives of three men as she moulded her statues of clay. It's a picture you'd be sorry to have missed.

Tuesday, June 3rd. Shirley Mason in "The Final Close-Up." If Shirley had kept it in the "First National Bank" he'd never have learned of her little masquerade.

Wednesday and Thursday, June 4th and 5th. Anita Stewart in her very latest production "Mary Regan," Leroy Scott's sensational novel of big pleasure in New York. Mary falls in love with the son of a rich man whose money the crooked attorney is scheming to steal.

Coming Friday and Saturday, June 6th and 7th. America's favorite, Mary Pickford in "Daddy Long Legs." A play of genuine comedy and homely sentiment. A story of laughter and pathos. It's Mary's biggest screen triumph. See it by all means.

E. A. R. THEATRE

Friday, May 30th, 2 to 11 continuous. Elsie Ferguson in "Eyes of the Soul." Founded on "Salt of the Earth," the famous Saturday Evening Post story. She was just a girl—a dancer in a cabaret, longing for ease and luxury—and she had to choose—one man was rich—a judge and he loved her—the other was poor and blinded in the war. And if you live a hundred years you'll never feel a picture tugging harder at your heart than this. Also Lyons Moran Comedy entitled, "Scared Stiff," Vodavil Movies and Pathe Comedy.

Saturday, May 31st. Matinee 2 to 6. Tom Moore in "One of the Finest." Brass buttons and aristocracy. He's a traffic cop with brass buttons and everything but when he arrested the heiress for speeding his job wasn't worth anything, and that's where the story begins—you'll like this smiling play with its absorbing story and little thrills. Also Pathe News and a good 2 reel comedy. Matinee only, Marie Walcamp in "The Red Glove." A serial full of action from beginning to end. The one they are all talking about.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Sunday 2 to 11 Continuous. Monday and Tuesday, matinee 2 to 6, evenings 7 to 11 p. m. Mary Pickford in "Daddy Long Legs." Adapted from the greatest play of the stage. This is what the Herald & Examiner says: "Clever is no name for the picture. If ever there should come a picture nearer to the popular heart than "Daddy Long Legs" I don't want to see it, for it would cloud the memory of a great thing. Certainly moving pictures have not, so far, produced a film with such a blend of comedy and pathos as is owned by this, the initial release of Mary Pickford's First National work." Sunday matinee only, Ruth Roland in "The Tiger's Trail."

Wednesday, June 4th. Rupert Julian, creator of "The Kaiser," in an amazing picturization of Wm. Neidig's great Saturday Evening Post story, "The Fire Flingers." The story that made a nation lose its sleep. Don't miss this wonderful picture, that created a sensation. If you've read the story you'll be thrilled by this great picture play. If you haven't read it you'll enjoy it just the same. It's great. See it. Also Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in "An Amateur Liar."

Thursday, June 5th. Madge Kennedy in "Leave It to Susan." She craved excitement and she got more than she bargained for. You'll laugh and cry over the strange adventures which befall lovable Madge Kennedy in her latest picture. Also Chas. Chaplin in "Shangheid," 2 reel comedy.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

On Memorial Day

Found high on the hill, in the valley,
And dotting the green-meadowed plain,
Today let us solemnly rally
To deck the fair graves of the slain.

While duty and valor men cherish,
While devotion is dear to the race,
In no age shall their memory perish;
In our hearts it must hold first place.

Bring garlands, twine wreaths and fair flowers,
Bring the flag that they died to uphold;
In the splendor of May be it ours
To see the great story retold.

For the freedom which Washington founded,
The law that blends justice with peace,
Through them won a future unbounded,
And a triumph that cannot decrease.

An eloquent prayer doesn't get any higher than the other kind.

Many a man who isn't quite sure of the Bible has unlimited faith in the almanac.

Casey says, "Sure wimin do pause and reflect—ivery time they see a lookin' glass."

Even bets are offered that the newly repaired 63rd St. will be torn up within the first month.

Most every man has an element of success in him, but it generally takes some smart little woman to bring it out.

Now comes the "sweet girl graduate" season, and the little dears are preparing for it with all the expectancy of brides. God bless them.

German diplomats calmly announce they will accept this, and not accept that— say you Heines! who do you think were the victors and are running that Paris show?

A disgruntled subscriber stopped his paper because he "had never had to pay his city automobile license until that darned (*!!df) Sullivan got to hollerin' about it in his !! paper."

Max Mindes was explaining to a customer, "there is very little change in men's trousers this year," and Casey observed, "There's very little change in me trousers ony year since I wor married."

If we can't get some of our progressive merchants to wash their display windows occasionally, why not ask Chief Kenyon to loan them part of his fire equipment? Some of them look as if a fire would do them good.

While we are hurrahing for the gallant boys who are returning this week from overseas, let us not forget those who will come nevermore, or those who have come to suffer a life time of wounds and diseases acquired "over there."

I saw a team of mules on the street the other day for which the owner paid $700 and I decided that the next time a dissatisfied subscriber called me a jackass I would reflect awhile before I took insult at being compared to the cousin of so valuable a critter.

A friend of Casey's was bit on a land scheme and had returned to good old Englewood a sadder but a wiser man. In telling of it he said the agent told him it was a land of plenty. "So it was," said Casey. "Plinty iv musquitoes and malaria, but divil the thing ilse."

Casey had just met a young fellow recently married, who in telling of the ceremony, remarked, "I got a terrible fright when I was married," and Casey butted in with "Hould on thare now, ye hov no roight to call the gurl be sich a name as thot, an' ye ownly marrid to her a wake."

"Me daughter, Mary Ellen, has a cute way iv refusin' a young mon and shtill makin' him fale good," says Casey. "Fer instance she turned down young Moriarity, and the vixen told him 'Oi would be scared to marry a handsome mon, Oi'm sure Oi'd be jealous iv him' and the fool belaves hur."

It is told of an Auburn Park man who, seeing his neighbor's little boy with a badly blackened eye, said to him, "I am sorry, Harry, to see you have a black eye." At which the little chap blubbered, "Well you needn't be; you jes go home and see your own little boy; I give him two black eyes, so I did."

Some one asked Casey if he thought it wrong to bet on the races. "Well, Oi dunno about that," was the studied reply. "Ut may not bay, ispicially if ye pathronize sum poor book maker thot has a large family to suppoort, he may as will hov ye'r muney as onywun ilse, ond it's a soort iv charity as it wor, ond ut may not bay so wrong."

Dr. White Preaches Next Sunday at His Church

The services at the Peoples Liberal Church next Sunday morning will be patriotic and with musical numbers in keeping with the week. Dr. White will preach on "The Spiritual Aspect of Our Nation" at 10:30, and there will be no evening services. It will be an altogether interesting service, and everyone is cordially invited. Dr. White's sermon will be of great interest, and the consideration of the spiritual aspect of our nation is one that in a measure has been overlooked in the great rush of temporal affairs. It will be instructive and interesting to hear the learned lecturer give his views on the subject, and doubtless a well filled church will listen to him. The soloist will be Marie Woodman Tufts, the contralto, and the patriotic music will be no small attraction.

Col. Henry J. Reilly and John R. Richards at Hamilton Park

A Community Rally will be held at the Hamilton Park field house on Monday evening, June 2, at eight o'clock. Citizens of the community are urged to attend this get-together" meeting and co-operate in planning a "Welcome Home" celebration for July 4th. Col. Reilly will talk about his "War Experiences," and Mr. Richards' subject will be "Community Organization."

A Coal Without Ash

Owing to the fact that Pocahontas egg and lump coals are practically off of the market we have selected an Eastern soft coal, called Paramount. This coal is absolutely pure, shaker screened, hand picked, no dust through the house and has less than a bushel of ash to the ton of coal. You may get a hand full of ash once or twice a week, if so throw the ash on the fire and the ash is gone. This coal can be used in any heating plant or stove and will save a great deal of hard labor carrying ashes. In order to introduce this coal we are making a special price of $8.00 per ton. We are unusually proud of this offer because of the big savings it brings to our patrons. Sold only by J. B. Meiner & Son, exclusive agents. We are as near you as your phone. Call us up, Stewart 70. (Adv-tf)

People's Fuel and Supply Co. Explain Their Stand

This large company, with the most improved location and facilities for handling coal and fuel of all kinds, is making a bid for Englewood trade, as will be seen by their ad on page 7. Their prices are low and they allow a discount of 10 cents a ton to cash customers, and make the buyer a present of a shovel. Read their ribbon ad at the bottom of the page. They are at 4921 Racine Ave. Tel. Yards 444 and Drover 9264.

Twenty-seven Years of Success

The General Furniture Co., with its seven big retail stores covering all parts of our big city, is celebrating this week its 27th anniversary, when the present president, then sole proprietor, Mr. Joseph Groenwald, first entered the commercial field. By untiring industry and above all a strict adherence to the right, honest business principles that has made his record so that of all the million customers this firm has served a dissatisfied one is unknown. Englewood people are invited to visit the main store at 62nd and Halsted St. and see the extraordinary display in honor of the event, and a special price that will make the event memorable for the patrons of the big company, as well as the genial president. Congratulations have been received from all the leading manufacturers of the country as well as from his thousands of personal and commercial friends.

Facts Worth Knowing

You must consider the quality of coal on all fill up orders you may place this spring, which is difficult for the average consumer to do, as all coals are black, which is true. You will find what it is when you start burning it, then your troubles commence. Now then, we are giving the public the benefit of our 25 years' experience in the coal business. Our selections consist of the following grades of coal. Pocahontas, Harrisburg, Franklin County and hard coals, all of the highest grades of coal produced in their respective districts. We are trying to save the public money by giving quality. Be careful and consider the quality and the firm before placing your order, no matter what your requirements are in steam, hot water or stove plants. We have a more efficient and economical product for that purpose. We deliver anywhere. Call up up, Stewart 70. J. B. Meiner & Son, 71st & Rock Island R. R. (Adv-tf)
